

Secure Stations Award to staff at Eltham Station 9th March 2009

Clive Efford MP presented the Secure Stations Scheme award to staff at Eltham railway station.

Eltham railway station is the latest on the Southeastern network to have gained Secure Station accreditation.

The award, made under the Secure Stations Scheme managed by the Department for Transport and British Transport Police, is an assurance to passengers and staff over real efforts made to deter crime and anti-social behaviour.

